

SLEW THE REBELS
BY THE HUNDREDBLOODY BATTLE FOUGHT AT MALAKAUD PASS.

Regular Troops Lost But Three Men and Had Fifty Wounded While the Rebels' Loss Was Five Hundred—The Cuban Insurgents Win a Victory.

Calcutta, April 4.—The British troops and the rebels fought at Malakaud Pass yesterday, and five hundred of the rebels were killed, with a loss of but fifty wounded and three killed among the regulars.

Key West, Fla., April 4.—Private advices to a prominent Cuban here, per steamer Olivette, state the Cuban insurgents, numbering 1,200 under Gen. Maso, March 30, met a Spanish train of mule teams with provisions and ammunition for the Spanish forces. After a short fight, the escort, numbering 500 soldiers, surrendered to Gen. Maso. The fight took place at Holquin, near Santiago. The train consisted of sixty-nine teams.

The Cubans here are elated over the news. It is certain a large army of Cubans and negroes are to be organized in Florida within a few weeks. This army will be dispatched from either an Atlantic or gulf port of Florida. It is expected that quite a number of Cubans from Tampa, Ocala and Key West will join this movement. A convention of Cuban leaders will convene in Jacksonville in a few days to devise plans for conveying men to Cuba.

MEXICO WILL BE EASY.

Agree to Arbitrate Amount of Indemnity Guatemala Must Pay.

City of Mexico, April 4.—The press generally speaks in high praises of the action of Mexico in finally averting war with Guatemala. There are a few people in this capital who are aware how closely the sending of a war message to congress by President Diaz was averted. Yesterday morning a cable message came from Guatemala to its minister to concede all of Mexico's claims and sign the treaty, which was done at 10 o'clock. The final negotiations are a compromise between the ultimatum and reply. It is believed the amount of cash indemnity instead of exacting the $2,000,000 first claimed.

Cubans Fleeing to Yucatan.

Progreso, Yucatan, April 4.—Every ship arriving from Cuba brings large numbers of revolutionists fleeing from that island for refuge in Mexico. Some of the leading residents of Yucatan are ex-Cuban refugees who have sought safety in this country during former disturbances, having never dared venture home.

Waiting An Opportunity.

New York, April 4.—A passenger on the Ward line steamer Vigilantia, which arrived from Havana, reports that at Manzanillo the sympathies of the whole city were with the insurgents, and the residents were only waiting for a favorable opportunity to join hands with the revolutionist forces.

HUNTING FOR A FIEND.

Terrible Crime Committed Yesterday Near Galena, Kan.

Galena, Kan., April 4.—A most atrocious double murder and attempted criminal assault occurred four miles northwest of this city yesterday.

James Walters and Samuel Cox live on adjoining farms. Cox is a widower, and his daughter Dolly, about 17 years old, keeps house for him. He had two sons, George and James, aged 19 and 12, living at home. Newton Walters, about 19 years old, son of James Walters, was evidently infatuated with Dolly Cox, but the latter did not care for him.

Yesterday morning young Walters went to the Cox place and wanted the two boys to go to the river with him after ducks. The three started out, taking a gun with them. Mr. Cox was absent on business and the girl was left at the house alone. About noon Walters returned to the house alone and told Dolly that he and her brothers had caught some young squirrels and wanted a box to put them in. The girl went into the yard after a squirrel trap, and Walters followed her; and, catching her, threw his arms around her, and pointing a pistol at her, told her that he would kill her, and informed her that her two brothers had been killed. The girl begged for her life, and after some parleying managed to get possession of the pistol. She threw the weapon away and ran to one of the neighbors, and Walters left.

Word was brought to town and parties left for the scene of the murder. The body of the elder Cox boy was found in a sitting posture against a tree, with a bullet hole in the back of his head. He was alive, but unconscious. He regained consciousness long enough to tell that young Walters shot him. Near where the older boy was found were traces where the younger boy had been shot, and the body dragged to the river and thrown in. The body has not been recovered. Posses are scouring the country for Walters.

Big Boat Takes Fire.

Pomeroy, Ohio, April 4.—At 8 o'clock yesterday, while putting off freight at Antiquity, twelve miles above Pomeroy, the passenger steamer Iron Queen took fire and was totally destroyed. One chambermaid is missing. The Iron Queen left Cincinnati for Wheeling and Pittsburg at 5 p. m. Monday.

Stop Prize Fighting.

Tallahassee, Fla., April 4.—The Florida legislature convened at noon yesterday for its biennial session of sixty days. The legislature is overwhelmingly democratic in both branches. The governor in his message strongly recommends the legislature to pass measures to put a stop to prize fighting.

ENGLAND WANTS NO ADVICE

John Bull Practically Says He Wants None Of Our Interference.

Washington, April 4.—There is reason to believe that the British government has given the United States ambassador, Mr. Bayard, to understand, in response to his representations in the Venezuelan boundary matter on his suggestion that it be submitted to arbitration, that it must persist in regarding the subject as one in which only Great Britain and Venezuela are concerned. Of course the idea was set out diplomatically and courteously, so as to avoid giving offense as far as possible while still making it plain that the United States could not be regarded as having any proper interest in the matter. It has been intimated that the United States might acquire a right to intervene in behalf of Venezuela by declaring a protectorate over that country, with the assent of its people, and behind this suggestion is at least one of the great European powers which would be glad to have its relations with the disturbed countries of South and Central America placed on a stable basis so that it might look to some thorough responsible, highly civilized government to insure the permanence of the trade and prevent frequent revolutions. But to concede the necessity for such a protectorate as a prerequisite to interfering to prevent the acquisition of American territory by a European power would amount to a renunciation of the Monroe doctrine by the United States, and this can not be contemplated by the administration.

There are indications that the British foreign officials are willing to discuss this feature of the case with Mr. Bayard at length, and so the negotiations may drag along for many months unless a collision occurs between the British and Venezuelan forces in the disputed territory or the new Minnesota company forces an issue by beginning operations under the large concessions it has obtained from Venezuela of lands in that section.

One of the diplomatic representatives from a South American republic, in speaking upon this subject remarked that the majority of the republics were staggering under foreign debts and were unable longer to meet their obligations. They could not meet the interest on these debts, much less could they pay off the principal, owing to the terrible commercial depression. The question confronting these countries is whether the United States will stand by and permit the creditor nations of Europe to collect these debts by force. Meanwhile, to strengthen their claim for protection upon the United States, there is in progress among the smaller and weaker republics a movement to entangle their interests with our own, so as to make it a matter of deep concern to our people should any European power attack them. The first indication of this policy was seen in the claim of San Domingo to exemption from the French demand upon its revenues, on the ground that these had all been farmed out to an American corporation, which would be ruined by compliance with the French demand. Then there is the recent concession made to an American corporation to Venezuela to force the United States into the issue between it and Great Britain, by motives of direct self-interest, and in other countries there has been adopted a policy of farming out to syndicates certain privileges, such as the right to import tobacco and opium and the collection of customs duties.

A. P. A. Bill Passes in Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., April 4.—The bill designed to reconstruct Omaha's fire and police commission passed the house yesterday over the governor's veto, after probably the hottest fight ever witnessed on the floor. The measure takes the appointive power, now in the governor's hands, and places it in a board composed of the governor, the attorney-general, and the commissioner of public lands and buildings. The two latter are A. P. A.'s, and the object is said to be that all Catholics in the fire and police departments shall be replaced by A. P. A.'s. The bill passed by one majority. Then issued a scene of wildest confusion. Tom Majors sprang into the center of the aisle and waved his hat, at the same time giving a wild yell. The lobby joined, and the crowd began to sing.

Wants Both Metals.

London, April 4.—The annual meeting of the Bimetallist league was held yesterday at the Mansion house. A. J. Balfour, conservative leader in the house of commons, made a strong speech in favor of a double standard. He said the belief in bimetallism was growing, not only in London and elsewhere in Great Britain but throughout the civilized world. In view of what was proceeding in America, Germany and France, and even in Great Britain, he was convinced that men of all classes would soon combine to put silver in its proper place.

Cuts Out the Contingent Clause.

Springfield, Ill., April 4.—The committee on conference having in charge the bill for the appropriation of the militia arrived at an agreement last night. The item of $30,000 for contingent expenses is to be stricken out of the measure. The item of $80,000 for uniforms and equipments is to be reduced to $61,000. This makes a total appropriation of $305,000, and the bill in this condition will undoubtedly receive the endorsement of both branches of the legislature.

Ann Arbor Road to Be Sold.

Toledo, Ohio, April 4.—The suit to prevent the proposed sale of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan railroad company has been decided by Judge Taft of the United States Circuit court against the stockholders, and barring further litigation the property will be offered for sale Thursday of next week.

BOLD THIEVES FAIL
AT ELYRIA, OHIOCOULD NOT GET INTO THE BIG VAULT.

Attempt Was Made Last Night to Rob the County Treasurer—Post-Office at Springfield, Ill., Looted—Thieves Get Away With $10,000 Worth of Plunder.

Albion, Ohio, April 4.—An attempt was made to rob the county treasurer's office last night but it failed. Springfield, Ill., April 4.—The post-office here was looted of about $10,000 worth of stamps and silverware yesterday. The robbery was committed about 12:30 o'clock while the postmaster, Redick M. Ridgely, was at the post-office. The robbers were not discovered until 5 o'clock, and those implicated have so far covered up their tracks so well that access was gained to the vault by the use of duplicate keys and when the majority of the employees were at lunch. No description of the robbers is available, as no one saw them, and in consequence considerable apprehension is felt that it will be impossible to locate them.

Postmaster Ridgely usually goes to lunch at 12:30 o'clock and remains away an hour. It was during his absence that entrance was effected and the stamps and silverware were taken. The first of the month the postoffice received $10,000 worth of stamps and these were taken, with the exception of two days' sales, probably amounting to $2,000. Besides this Mr. Ridgely had stored in the vault his daughter's, Mrs. Devereaux's, wedding presents, valued at $1,000. The stamps and silverware would make an enormous package, and it is hard to conceive of a method to take them from the building in broad daylight without observation.

It was 5 o'clock when Assistant-Postmaster McMurphy had occasion to go to the vault for stamps. He found the interior of the vault in wild disorder and everything of value removed. Only a small amount of money was taken, about $50, which had been received for rent of boxes. Mr. Ridgely until a few days ago had about $30,000 in cash in the vault, and the theory is advanced that the thieves had some intimation of this and that they were after it. The work is no doubt that of experts, and they were compelled to work for fully a week in order to secure their keys, as the only opportunity they could avail themselves of was at noon, when the postmaster and most of the clerks are away.

The authorities have begun work on the case with the supposition that at least three men were concerned in the robbery. None of the employees of the department have keys to the vault, only the postmaster and assistant having access to it. As soon as the robbery was discovered the authorities at Washington and Chicago were notified and special agents are expected here soon. Cities all over the state have been notified and every outgoing train watched. The size of the bundle containing the stolen property leads the postoffice officials to hope the men may be caught.

SAY THEY DID NOT KILL KEHRES.

Wife of the Dead Man and Edward Mosher Return to Elkhart.

Elkhart, Ind., April 4.—Edward Mosher and Mrs. William Kehres, who have been accused of the murder of the woman's husband last Saturday night, returned here yesterday and were arrested. They claim after being driven to Jones Crossing Sunday night after hearing the pistol shot they took a train and went to Detroit, Mich., without knowing of Kehres' death. At Detroit the woman says she became homesick, and wanting to see her children came back here, bringing Mosher with her. She says her husband tried to shoot her Sunday evening because she had begun divorce proceedings, and that it was to save her own and Mosher's life that they started for Canada. Coroner Kreider, who was unable at first to find a bullet wound on the dead man owing to his charred condition, yesterday discovered two wounds, and one of the bullets was extracted.

Lindholm Acquitted at Lansing.

Lansing, Mich., April 4.—The jury in the case of ex-Deputy Secretary of State August W. Lindholm, charged with embezzling funds, returned a verdict of not guilty yesterday after deliberating three hours. Lindholm admitted he took the money, but denied any intent to defraud the state, claiming he fully intended to return the money from his salary. He was unable to do this owing to the loss of his position by the removal of his superior by the governor.

Boy 10 Years Old Hangs Himself.

Oneill, Neb., April 4.—Grover Leeper, 10 years old, hanged himself yesterday. He was discussing with several companions the lynching of Barrett Scott. Young Leeper insisted hanging was a painless death, and to demonstrate the fact fastened a hitching strap over a pole and around his neck and swung from a box. Before his companions realized the situation he was dead.

Six Narrowly Escape Lynching.

St. Louis, Mo., April 4.—Sheriff Archer and deputy from Steelville reached St. Louis yesterday with A. M. Greer and the latter's five sons, having narrowly escaped a mob gathered to lynch the prisoners. Greer and his sons are charged with the murder of David Hill debarnd of Crawford county. After the murder of Hildebrand the body was burned.

Will Not Indict Riots.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—It is given out by way of a leak from the grand jury room that the investigation into the legislative riot will not result in any indictments. The grand jury is beginning to regard the affair as a joke. Gov. Matthews was a witness yesterday, but as he did not see the fight his evidence was not important.

JOVE'S BOLT TURNED ON WILLIAM LAKEALBION MURDERER ELECTRO-CUTTED THIS AFTERNOON.

Paid the Penalty of His Crime at the Prison at Auburn, N. Y.—May Lynch the Taylors—William Cesar Confesses—Other Crimes and Criminals.

Auburn, N. Y., April 4.—William Lake, the brutal Albion murderer, was electrocuted this afternoon.

Carrollton, Mo., April 4.—The jury has not yet rendered a verdict in the case of William P. and George E. Taylor, charged with the murder of the Weeks family. There are ugly rumors afloat and the town is full of men from Linn and Sullivan counties who believe the Taylors guilty and who will not quietly accept any other verdict. The rumor most exciting to the organization of a mob is that two of the jurors have been bribed—paid $1,500—to prevent a conviction by a "hung" jury, if they cannot bring about an acquittal.

Murderer Confesses.

New York, April 4.—The mutilated corpse found Sunday morning in the arcaway at Sixth avenue and Waverly place has been positively identified as the remains of Mary Martin, the negro, who lived with a West Indian negro known as William Caesar. Caesar is said to have confessed to the murder. When the rooms were examined the walls were found spattered with blood. Caesar is 28 years old and was born in the West Indies. He is a little above medium height and is black-skinned. He has been in this city since 1890.

A few hours later the other surrendered.

Ex-Gov. St. John's Son Kills His Wife.

Oklahoma City, Ok., April 4.—Harry St. John, son of ex-Gov. St. John of Kansas and a member of the last Oklahoma legislature, shot and killed his wife yesterday at his home, two miles west of this city. Though he claims the shooting to have been accidental, he admits he had reason to suspect his wife of unfaithfulness to him. The woman leaves two small children.

Cashier Is Shot $50,000.

Chicago, April 4.—It has been discovered that F. W. Griffin, assistant cashier of the Northwestern national bank of this city, is a defaulter to the extent of $50,000, and he has been arrested and has confessed. Neither was seriously injured.

PUTS SPAIN IN A BOX.

Reported Firing on a British Vessel May Be Serious.

Washington, April 4.—It is said by officials that the reported firing by a Spanish gunboat on the British ship Ethelred, bound from Boston to Jamaica, if confirmed, will give the United States and Great Britain a common cause in demanding explanations and indemnity from Spain. Official confirmation of the indignity of the Ethelred has not yet been received here, either at the state department or British Embassy. The circumstances appear to be almost identical with the firing on the Allianca. It is not yet clear, however, whether the Ethelred was on the high seas or was within six miles of Cape May, which is the jurisdictional limit claimed by Spain.

Japan Will Arrange a Gold Basis.

Washington, April 4.—Announcement that Japan would demand a war indemnity of $400,000,000 in gold from China agrees with the information on that subject in Washington. Information to this effect has been received by officials of the treasury department, and it is understood that this will be the first step by Japan in the direction of putting its financial system on a gold basis. If it is determined to adopt the single gold standard the war indemnity from China will doubtless be used as a gold reserve for the purpose of bringing all the currency of the country up to the gold standard.

Battle of Strikers at Muncie, Ind.

Muncie, Ind., April 4.—The men who struck at the Indiana iron works Tuesday, yesterday attacked the men who refused to strike. There was a lively battle with sticks and stones, and at least eight were injured, some of them seriously. All kinds of weapons were used, but there was no shooting.

STONE DENOUNCES LOBBY.

Special Session of the Missouri Legislature Called for April 23.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 4.—Gov. Stone has issued a call for a special session of the state legislature, to meet on April 23. In his call Gov. Stone condemns the "organized and salaried lobby," which he declares has disgraced the state for years, and adds:

"A number of senators and representatives, as well as many good citizens, who have felt appalled by the overshadowing influence, and humiliated at the triumph of the lobby, have pressed upon me the importance of reconvening the general assembly to the end that the issue may be fairly presented and an open test made as to whether a just legislative measure can be enacted into a law in spite of the contaminating influence of those who openly boast their ability to direct the current of legislation. It is clear to me that the time for mild protest is past. We are confronted by the question whether the people of the lobby shall rule Missouri. The public safety and the honor of the state are at stake. Every senator, member, public official, and citizen familiar with the truth knows that these words are justified by the situation at Jefferson City."

Princes Plurality Increasing.

Galesburg, Ill., April 4.—The official vote of Knox county in the congressional election follows: Prince, rep., 6,088; Bastian, dem., 1,427; Kempster, pop., 526. Returns from other counties are not yet complete, but indicate a plurality of 12,000 to 15,000 for Prince.

A BIG DAY'S WORK DONE AT MADISONBOTH HOUSES FLOODED WITH LIQUOR PETITIONS.

Many People Favor the Passage of the Measure Prohibiting Saloons Near Soldiers' Homes—Many Measures Killed and Some Passed—Other Business Done.

Madison, April 4.—A big day's business was transacted by the legislature today. Both houses were again flooded with petitions for the passage of the bill prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within half a mile of soldiers' homes. There will be a public hearing on the bill tonight.

The senate passed the bill providing for a commission to promote the establishment of free libraries and providing for destruction of obnoxious weeds. They killed the bill relating to the examination and commitment of insane and bill No. 40 S., relating to taxation of trust companies, with but few dissenting votes. Bills were ordered to a third reading; taxing club houses used for fishing, hunting and sporting purposes from $10 to $50 according to amount of land and providing for examination of engineers of stationary engines.

Halford Erickson was confirmed by the senate as commissioner of statistics.

The county option bill was made a special order for tomorrow morning. The bill taxing collateral inheritance was referred to the committee again.

VOTES AGAIN.

This Time the Illinois Senate Adopts the Torrens Land Bill.

Springfield, Ill., April 4.—The senate passed the Torrens land title bill yesterday with only three dissenting votes. Those voting in opposition to the bill were Senators Crawford, Howell and Campbell of Hamilton. The bill was defeated last Thursday, receiving only nineteen votes, seven less than a constitutional majority, but yesterday thirty-one members voted for it, and the eighteen votes against it last Saturday dwindled down to three. The bill was brought before the body as a special order on Humphrey's motion to reconsider the vote by which the measure was lost. This motion prevailed by a vote of thirty-two to one nay. The bill was then passed. This measure provides for the simplification of the land transfer system of the state, abolishing the necessity of abstracts and of costly examinations of titles, and substituting in their place a system of registry by which it becomes as easy to sell or buy a parcel of land as to transfer a registered government bond or a bunch of stock. Each parcel of realty will be given a page in the books of a public registrar, who will issue certificates to the owners, duplicating the entries on the register. All that will be necessary to transfer a piece of land under the Torrens system will be to have the transfer made on the register, and to procure the issue of a new certificate to the purchaser. As every lien upon property, in order to be valid, must be entered upon the certificate and upon the books, the exact status of a piece of property will be apparent at a glance and the uncertainty and red tape of realty transfer will be reduced to a minimum.

The chances of the measure in the house are believed to be excellent, especially in view of the emphatic vote in the senate.

Senator Bogardus introduced a bill to cover the defects in his train-robbing measure, and it was ordered to a second reading without reference to a committee.

Senator Green's bill preventing persons other than the attorney-general and judgment creditors of building and loan associations to petition for a receiver was advanced to a third reading.

Bills appropriating $55,000 for payment of employees passed, and the bill appropriating $12,825 for the expenses of the committee on statutory revision was advanced to a third reading.

Consideration of the adverse committee report on Senator Craig's bill to abolish the state board of equalization, which was a special order immediately on the reading of the journal, was made a special order for two weeks hence. Senator Evans' bill amending the act establishing a system of free schools, providing that Decoration day shall be a school holiday and adding an emergency clause was advanced to third reading.

Regular order was suspended in the house, and bills on second reading were taken up. Among the measures advanced was that introduced by Representative Cochran, which provides that County Commissioners may take children from poorhouses and contract with persons for their keep. Another bill advanced was that of Lowenthal providing that any person committed to jail on a criminal charge and not admitted to bail shall be tried within three months of the date of commitment or set at liberty. If there should be no term of court within four months of the time of the commitment the prisoner shall be tried at the first term following, or set free.

The following bills were advanced to third reading: Guffin's bill reducing the rate of interest on school funds to 7 per cent. Bryan's bill governing the tax sales. (Noll's bill was laid on the table.) Shanahan's bill providing for the recording of the organization of cities and villages. McLaughlin's bill to provide for the examination of fire bosses and hoisting engineers at coal mines, and Snyder's bill providing for the examination of mine managers.

MILTON WILL FIGHT THE DAMAGE CLAIMS

THE MATTER WAS VOTED ON AT TOWN MEETING.

Farmers Have Begun Their Spring Work—Porter's Creamery Expects to Do a Big Business This Year—Latter Day Saints Holding Meetings—Other County News.

At Milton's town meeting Tuesday, it was voted that the application of Miss Blanche Williams, for damages for an injury caused by a defective sidewalk, be referred to the board of supervisors. In the case of Henry Herbst, of Fort Atkinson, who, through Fethers, Jeffris, Fifeid & Matheson, has sued the town for $5000 damages for an injury received as the result of a defective sidewalk, the report of the committee appointed by the board of supervisors to investigate the matter showed that the claim was founded on false grounds. A unanimous resolution favoring the disallowance of the claim was passed. Another resolution was passed favoring the submission of a constitutional amendment to the people of the state, regulating the issuance of railroad passes.

A resolution presented by Ezra Goodrich was passed, appropriating $200 for lighting the railroad crossings and other dangerous places.

SURPRISE PARTY AT AFTON.

Friends Descend on Mr. and Mrs. Blunk—Road Machine Ordered.

AFTON, April 4.—Surprised indeed were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blunk, when about a score of hilarious visitors walked in very unceremoniously at their home last Monday evening, and took possession. A jolly time resulted and the host and hostess, extended a cordial invitation for the visitors to call again. Lyman H. Miller continues to make noticeable improvements around his village home, as the new blinds on his fine residence testify. Busy with cleaning up the debris left over from building, and in filling up and grading the premises, Mr. Miller indicates conclusively an intent to make his new home one of the finest in this section. Rev. John B. Utton, of Durand, Wis., spent a couple of days visiting old friends in this vicinity the first part of the week. Mr. Utton was formerly pastor of the Baptist church here. He occupied the Baptist pulpit at Brodhead last Sunday, and will preach there again next Sunday. W. C. Phoenix and family moved back to Lima last Wednesday. The town voted to buy the Austin road machine, which was used and tested on our roads last summer. Louis E. Hills has purchased and is razing the coal shed formerly used by Charles & Son, and will use a portion of the lumber in the erection of a meat market here. Work is progressing nicely on the new dwelling being erected by Gustav Nohr, on his farm recently purchased by Andrew Larson.

LAW TO MAKE PHONES CHEAPER

Bill Is Somewhere In the Senate Committee Boxes At Madison.

Hidden in the recesses of some committee box at Madison there is a bill known as No. 350 S., which is of more than usual interest in that it seeks to compel the Wisconsin Telephone company to charge less exorbitant rates for telephone service. The measure was introduced by Senator Martin on the last day for the introduction of bills and since that time nothing has been heard of it. In the first place the measure provides that all applicants for the use of telephones must be provided with instruments and that there shall be no discrimination against any person or corporation in regard to the price charged for the service. A rate schedule is made whereby the rental is fixed for the use of a telephone in cities having a population of over 50,000 at $6 per month for suburban and $4 a month for down town circuits. Where two or more telephones are used by the same individual a reduction is provided for whereby the charge for the two telephones is fixed at $4.50 per month each for outside circuits and $3 for city circuits. In cities having a population of from 20,000 to 50,000 it is provided that the rate shall not be to exceed $4 per month where only one telephone is used by any individual and $3 per month where more than one telephone is used. As the population of the cities lessens the rates the rates are cut accordingly. Thus in cities having a population of between 10,000 and 20,000, the rates are $3.50 and $2.25 per month respectively, according to the number of telephones used, while in cities under 10,000 the rates are $3 and $3.50 per month. Punishment is provided for violations of the act. Any person guilty of such an offense can be subjected to a fine of $100. The terms of the bill are such that any operator, owner or agent of a telephone can be convicted under the clause. As will be seen the passage of this bill would materially lessen telephone rates and would cut down the charges of the company materially. For this reason the bill is likely to receive considerable attention before the session closes and will undoubtedly be opposed by the telephone company.

No practitioner in any of the professions, can year after year, do business in any locality without inspiring confidence by reason of his success or else proving that his pretensions to skill are groundless, and the best evidence that Dr. Brewer is a skillful physician, is to be found in the fact that for many years he has visited various localities in this state—and each year his reputation for success has been growing brighter. There must be merit to command such confidence. Dr. Brewer will be at the Park Hotel in this city on Monday, April 8.

OLD RAILROAD LINE MAY NOW BE BUILT

THE JOHNSTOWN ROUTE LIKE- LY TO BE UTILIZED.

The Talk Is Revived By the Filing of Articles of Association With the Secretary of State Yesterday For a Stock Company With $5,000,000 Capital.

Talk of the old project to run a railroad through Johnstown has been renewed by the fact that the Western Construction company filed articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state at Madison yesterday. The object of the company is to construct a railroad from Cambridge, in Dane county to the south state line, and take in Superior on the north, a distance of 330 miles. The new road is to extend through the following counties: Racine, Walworth, Rock, Jefferson, Dane, Dodge, Columbia, Green Lake, Marquette, Adams, Washara, Waupaca, Portage, Wood, Clark, Marathon, Chippewa, Taylor, Price, Sawyer, Douglas, Ashland, Bayfield, Iron. The incorporators are E. J. Foster of Madison, C. G. Norton of Oconomowoc, F. B. Hanchett of Madison, F. W. Hall of Madison. The above named gentlemen are the signers of the articles of incorporation but it is believed that others are furnishing the capital to put the project into operation.

The Koshkonong Valley Railroad company, the originator of the idea, filed an amendment to its articles changing its name to the Chicago & Lake Superior company and increasing its capital stock to $5,000,000.

MISSIONARY WOMEN CELEBRATE.

Court Street Organization Marked Their Twenty-Fifth Anniversary.

Members of the Court Street Auxiliary of the Janesville district of the Northwestern Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Circle marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the circle in the northwest at the home of Mrs. S. D. Conant yesterday afternoon and evening. The program was a pleasing one and added much to the interest of the meeting. Mrs. J. M. Bostwick read a poem, "A Plea for the Heathen," and Mrs. A. R. Knox read an original acrostic, the words being "The Northwestern Branch." Incidents of native work were given, which proved instructive as well as interesting, and Mrs. C. A. Hunt read a story by Clara Cushman, a returned missionary from China entitled, "What My Becca Thinks About the Chinese." Supper was served at 6 o'clock and the meeting was a profitable one in all ways. The Janesville district meets in Evansville next month.

WHY AM I SO TIRED?

Why Do I Feel So Miserable In the Spring?

It Is Your Poor Condition Causing Spring Weaknesses.

The Spring a Very Critical Time, Especially If You Are Out of Order.

You always feel worse in the spring. You have lost your old-time snap and vim. Work that you used to do with ease, now tires you. You often feel dull, dispirited and without ambition. You pass more or less sleepless nights, wake mornings, tired and unrefreshed, have little or no appetite for your breakfast, your head feels dull, there is a bad taste in the mouth, and your bowels are constipated. You go about your employment with a sense of weakness or weariness, and a distaste for taking hold of your work. Besides, you are nervous, irritable, and often "blue" without apparent cause.

Then look to yourself, for weak feeling is the forerunner of exhaustion. Every sleepless moment you pass at night, prostrates days of prostration; every hour you feel weak, nervous, languid, tired, with shattered nerves, trembling limbs, dull head, disordered stomach and irregular bowels, may be followed by weakness and months of sickness. Every day you neglect these symptoms may mean years of unutterable misery, or those terrible results nervous prostration, heart failure, paralysis, insanity or premature death.

These symptoms are the warnings that you are running on the rocks of disease, and that unless you seek immediate safety, wreck of brain, nerve and body are inevitable.

W. H. Wakefield, of Montpelier, Vt. writing on this subject says:

"About a year ago my health was very poor. I was very nervous, with a bad feeling in my head and at the base of my brain, extending down the back of my neck. I was thin in flesh, and pale, weak and tired, and unable to sleep nights. I had a terrible deathly feeling which I should describe as a falling sensation, and many times I should have fallen if I had not taken hold of something."

This condition continued for about three months before I found help. I heard of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and commenced using it. Before I had taken one bottle, I felt the good results of it, and before I had used the second, I was entirely cured of all the above troubles."

This wonderful restorative of brain and nerve, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, will give back to the weakened and exhausted system the strength it has lost. It will impart strength and vigor to the brains and nerves, vitalize and invigorate all the physical power, and restore you again to that degree of lusty strength, of bounding pulse, and strong physical and nerve power, which, by overwork, ignorance or folly, you have exhausted.

It is not a patent medicine but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. Dr. Greene, 35 West 14th St., New York city. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by any one at any time, free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the forehead, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

NOTES OF THE TOILET.

The Cause of Wrinkles and How to Avoid Them.

The Turkish and Circassian women use henna for penciling the eyes, while those among the Arabs of the desert blacken the edge of the eyelids with powder, and draw a line about the eye to make it appear larger. The Spanish grand dames squeeze orange juice into their eyes. It is a trifle painful at first, but it cleanses the ball and imparts remarkable brightness temporarily. A contemporary medical authority discussing health and beauty, says: Perhaps you are young, but hints of wrinkles suddenly appear, apparently without cause. Find out if you do not squeeze your eyes tightly together when going to sleep, as a child does when it makes believe to sleep. Many women draw the corners of the mouth down and so produce furrows from the nose to the corner of the mouth and down the side to the chin. To get a beauty sleep go to bed thinking of the pleasant things that will befall you. The lips should meet easily, the mouth should never be open, and on the sleeper's face should rest an expression as if absolute contentment possessed mind and body."

It is of course everywhere known that sleep is as essential as food to life, but it does not seem to be equally well known that to sleep with a light in the room is to miss the full benefit of repose. Nature originally arranged matters so that the hours devoted to humanity to rest were dark as well as silent, and the eyes of the sleeper were entirely free from the light which shone into them during waking hours. The lids alone are not a sufficient protection from light during sleep, and the body as well as the eyes rests more soundly and refreshingly in darkness. Besides "all cats are gray in the dark," and by putting out the light the plainest of us becomes a sleeping beauty.

The evening gown illustrated is of pale green changeable silk. The skirt has two flounces of mousseline de soie to match, the upper one headed by a wreath of wood violets. On the left side is a quille of three bunches of roses and foliage. The blouse corsage, of mousseline, is full back and front and is mounted at the top on lace insertion. The draped belt is of rose satin, and the sleeves of rose and green bias striped silk. JUDIC CHOLLET.

WEDDING SUPERSTITIONS.

Why Brides Should Wear White Unless They Have Been Widows.

Among the immense number of superstitions in the world, the great proportion cluster about the continually recurring phenomena of existence, birth, marriage and death. A few of those connected with weddings are given as the season approaches when marriages occur most frequently in the fashionable world.

A maiden should never be married in colors if she wishes to be happy, the most unfortunate colors being yellow and green.

Widows who remarry ought not to be dressed in white. Wednesday is the most fortunate day for marriages, Saturday the most unlucky.

The 13th of the month is unfortunate for all purposes.

If a wedding party should meet a funeral on the way to church, separation will ensue.

Birds in flocks are lucky, and the sun to shine upon a bride is most propitious, denoting success in all matters and mutual love.

If a green pea pod containing nine peas is put by a maiden over the hall door, she will be married if the first stranger who enters happens to be a bachelor.

Everything commenced upon the first day of the moon is supposed to turn out successful.

To dream of a wedding means a death, and to dream of a death foretells a wedding.

To change the date for a wedding is considered unlucky.

Those who sit on a table will never be married.

"Thrice a bridesmaid, never a bride." Two spoons in one cup are a sign of a wedding.

It is unlucky to be married in the waning of the moon.

The wedding gown shown in the sketch is of white satin. The trained skirt is ornamented on the right side by a quille of satin ribbon fastened by sprays of orange flowers. The bodice has a plain back, the front being gathered at the waist. A large collar of lace forms one deep point at the back and two in front and is edged with a flounce of plaited mousseline de soie. The immense gigot sleeves have satin knots at the shoulders. A white satin belt closed by a chou encircles the waist. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Plans for Irrigation Discussed.

Washington, April 4.—The irrigation board, composed of five officers of the interior and five officers of the agricultural department, met yesterday and discussed the subject of a plan for irrigation. TWO OLD SETTLERS CALLED BY DEATH

MARTIN ZIENOW AND W. R. EARL ANSWER THE CALL.

Former Was Well Known Here, Where He Formerly Lived, But Of Late He Had Resided at Hanover—Mr. Earl, a County Pioneer, Passed Away at His Shopiere Home.

Martin Zienow died in Hanover at 3 o'clock this morning, of pneumonia, aged about sixty years.

This announcement will be a sad surprise to the many friends of Mr. Zienow, not only in the city, but in the neighborhood where he lived. Mr. Zienow resided in this city upwards of thirty years, and at one time kept a restaurant and boarding house on West Milwaukee street. About five years ago he moved to Hanover and engaged in the hotel business at that place. He had been in poor health for some time, but had been able to be around and attend to his business until a few days ago. He leaves a wife and two children, Mrs. M. Sidmore and Frank Zienow, both of whom reside in Hanover. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Funeral of C. Wilcox.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of Clinton Wilcox this afternoon, and many floral tributes were placed on and around the casket which contained the remains of one who was held in high esteem by all who knew him in life. Rev. A. H. Barrington conducted the services, which were held at the home at 2:30 o'clock; and was assisted in the song service by a quartet composed of Mrs. Minnie S. Conrad, Mrs. E. M. Hyzer, C. N. Vankirk and George G. Paris. At the conclusion of the services the remains were taken to Oak Hill for interment, the pall bearers being John Fitzgerald, Oscar F. Nowlan, D. W. Watt, J. M. Sutherland, L. F. Holloway and Frank L. Smith.

William R. Earl.

William Reuben Earl died suddenly at his home near Shopiere yesterday after but a few days' illness. Mr. Earl had not been very sick, as his friends supposed, and his demise was quite a surprise. He was born at Mendon, Yates county, N. Y., Oct. 3, 1832 and was therefore 63 years of age. He was married to Miss Martha VanSoy in 1852 and in the same year came to Wisconsin, which state had been his home ever since. Beside a wife, four children survive, they being Fancher Earl, Mrs. F. Rice, Mrs. R. Schenck and Sumner Earl. The funeral will be held from the house at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Captain Glass is working the company hard, so as to gain a few points at their next inspection, which is liable to take place any time after April seventeenth. The companies only get three days' notice in which to prepare themselves.

A Beautiful April Day.

We have had big business days in the past; in fact, days that we thought could not be beat; but yesterday was greater than any we ever experienced, and at this writing today is away ahead of yesterday, and will no doubt end much bigger. We show the goods; we name the low prices; we do as we advertise; we urge no one to buy; the goods do that, and we get the business. Keep an eye on us.

SHE MAY LOSE HER BIRTHRIGHT

A Former Clinton Woman Affected By The Milwaukee Trouble.

The effects of the failure to file marriage certificates at Milwaukee are widespread. For instance Leon Soulerin, a young Frenchman, once prominent in social circles in Milwaukee, married a Miss Jane Madeline Willis, of Clinton, Wis. They moved to Paris. Both he and his wife died and before their only little daughter could receive their property she had to, by the French law, prove her legitimacy. No certificate could be found and probably she will be excluded from her birthright.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

THE cambrics that we offer at 81 cents per yard are fine and heavy and good. As we were opening the cases on our walk a reliable jeweler of our city was passing and we told him the price and asked his opinion of them. He said he didn't know much about "calico" but he thought at 81 cents they were a "solid gold full jeweled stem winding bargain." You will think so too when you see them. Bort, Bailey & Co.

SHERIFF APPELEY of Janesville, has made another clever capture of an alleged train robber, against whom the allegation is particularly strong. The name of the party is Lewis Klingburg, who has been hiding in the Sugar river bottoms, about sixteen miles west of Beloit.—Milwaukee Journal.

H. C. STEARNS had 184 majority over his democratic opponent in the First ward aldermanic contest, but in last night's Gazette the "1" got lost in the shuffle, and it only read "84."

THE Janesville art league should receive a very liberal patronage to the art exhibition, given by them next week, in the Phoebe block. Season tickets good for one week, are only 35 cents.

PAUL RUDOLPH, who has been spending the winter in Germany, will be home by Sunday. He telegraphs from New York that he arrived in that city this morning, all right and well.

D. E. PUFFER, formerly with the old Wisconsin Shoe Company, but now in the general merchandise business at Valley, Nebraska, is in the city, visiting old time friends.

A SERIOUS CHARGE MADE AGAINST A BELOIT MAN.

Complaint Says He Cast Ballots In Two Separate Wards and His Trial Will Come Off On April 13—C. D. and S. T. Johnson Charged With Receiving Stolen Goods.

On the charge that he voted twice during the election held on Tuesday, Dennis Ryan, of Beloit, is locked in a cell at the county jail.

Ryan was arrested yesterday, and after waiving examination he was held by the Beloit justice for trial in the municipal court, on April 13, and in default of bail was committed to the county jail last evening. It is charged that Ryan cast a ballot in one ward and later voted in another. It is a state's prison offense.

C. D. and S. T. Johnson of Beloit, had an examination yesterday in Beloit on the charge of receiving the goods said to have been stolen from the Chicago & Northwestern train at Shopiere by Flynn, Franklin and Crowley. Both were held for trial in the municipal court on April 11, their bail being placed at $1,200 each.

BABY CONTEST OPEN
BALLOTS IN DEMAND

THE CONTEST.

Five Shares of Stock In the Rock
County Building Loan and Savings
Association Will be Given the Winner June 1—Value at Maturity Is $500 and It Is Non Assessable.

The polls for The Gazette contest for the babies is now open and the ballot will be found at the close of this article and will run until June 1, when the contest will close.
Much interest is centered in The Gazette's offer to present the baby who gets the highest number of votes with $500 worth of stock in the Rock County Building Loan and Savings Association. It is a prize worth getting, for naturally it will be worth just half a thousand dollars. That will be a nice nest egg if kept at interest after maturity until the child becomes old enough to want to use it.

It will buy an education.
It will buy a building lot.
It will buy a piano and the lessons necessary to play upon it.

It is more than many people are able to save in a life time.

Of course all the mothers and fathers want it for their babe. How to get it is told below:

The polls opened this morning and will remain open until June 1.
The baby that receives the most ballots in that time will receive a certificate calling for these five shares of stock. There are no dues to be paid, no assessments to be met, no installments to provide for. The stock stands for $500 in cash and on its maturity, which will be in nine and one-third years,
the money will be ready. The prize is a handsome one—it is well worth winning and the conditions of the ballot are as follows:

From March 1 until June 1, a coupon will be printed in each issue of The Gazette.

Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

Cut the ballot out (trimming on the dotted lines.) Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Ballot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

The baby who receives the largest number of votes will receive five shares of stock in the Rock County Building & Savings Association, cash value, $500 at maturity.

The contest will close June 1 at 9
p. m., and the stock will be delivered as soon as the count of votes is completed.

Any non-subscriber who will subscribe for The Gazette and pay in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six
months, 900 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one
year, 2,000 votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is also entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day and vote in the regular manner.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

No votes can be transferred from one candidate to another after being registered in this office.

Candidates must not be more than three years of age March 1, 1895, and must live in Janesville.

THE BALLOT.

The Publishers of "The Janesville Gazette" will give 5 Shares of stock in the Rock County Building, Loan & Savings Association to the Baby who receives the largest number of ballots.

The Stronghold of Health

Is soon carried by the assaults of malaria, but if Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is employed as a bulwark against the disease, absolute safety is attained. The most virulent forms of disease bred by miasma, tainted air and water, soon yield to the creative and combative influence of this efficient safeguard, which fortifies the system as no other medicine up to date has ever done. It counteracts a tendency to rheumatism, neuralgia and kidney complaints, overcomes indigestion, nervousness, constipation and liver troubles, improves the appetite and promotes digestion. Tearing for all in all, it is probably the most useful family remedy in existence and is popular as well as effective. Use it systematically, not at irregular intervals.

The Clown and the Missionary.

By VIOLA ROSEBORO.

[Copyright, 1892, by the Century Company.]

It was a sunny May morning, and the Baltic was steaming out of New York bay for Liverpool. It was the old ship's last trip in these waters, and she made it under special conditions. She was given up entirely to second class passengers, who, of course, as a result, had in some respects first class accommodations. The consequence was a social mixture perhaps a shade odder and more varied than is usually seen. Two weeks before my friend Miss Milman had happened to see this arrangement advertised, and we had suddenly and happily discovered that at the rates given we could afford to drop work (our painting and writing) for a month or two and together "run over to the other side."

We were on deck in that May sunshine, our hands full of flowers—for our friends had graciously ignored our lowly second class estate in their farewells—the bright waters dancing around us, the workaday world behind us, enchanted lands of romance and beauty before us, and at our elbows a new and heterogeneous representation of the dear, dull, supremely interesting human race. By the time we had spent an eternity of two days in a universe of water and sky we had discovered beneath the prevailing commonplace exteriors various pleasing features among our fellow passengers. The Irish ward politician's obvious moral heinousness, taken together with his tender devotion to a little sick wife, gave us an enjoyable incongruity. We relished the simple and profound moral patronage we received from a trio of professional feminine philanthropists, well meaning souls, dripping with self esteem, who were going over to investigate the workings of some society for the promotion of some sort of good works. We delighted in their genuine horror of a stunning, bouncing, good looking young woman who was said to be an actress, but whose normal position, it was perfectly clear, was at the head of a column of lightly clad amazons in a Kirolyf spectacle, and we liked her as a perfect specimen of her kind, but we had most pleasure in the simple admiration and respect we felt for a shabby, gentle, intelligent missionary from China, who was on his way to a great Exeter hall meeting in London, and in the curiosity aroused in us by a dumb, wooden youth with watery, pale eyes and a red head, who looked rough and "horsy," and whom we repeatedly saw sitting in his state-room—it was opposite ours—reading a small Bible.

We thought it piquant when we found he knew the spectacular amazon, but that was but the beginning of satisfactions, for we soon discovered that he was himself a circus clown.

To look upon a little dull, faithful looking creature like that, to see him absorbed in reading a pocket edition of the Holy Scriptures and to be able to reflect that he lived by the violent vicissitudes of a sawdust buffoon was a privilege that, among other things, made me laugh till I cried. Perhaps the step from the one expression to the other was shorter than usual.

The sight of him gave me new thoughts as to the possible value of rites, of formal observances. There was nothing in his aspect as he read to suggest keen intellectual or spiritual activity. On the contrary, I could imagine him turning two leaves at once and being never the wiser or the less wise. The occasion was plainly one of ceremony, but it was equally plain that it was ceremony observed with religious feeling, and without going into the gloomy question of how far religious feeling may be removed from a sense of moral obligations I felt very sure to such a boy as this, English or American, and unfettered by the public opinion of his world, the ceremony of Bible reading was morally conserving.

The third day out I did a highly reprehensible thing. I had seen the clown on deck as I came down to my state-room, and when near the open door of his I saw the Bible lying on one of the theatrical trunks with which the place was filled. The temptation was irresistible.

object for investigation. He'll never come up to the situation."

I thought she was probably right. Still my curiosity was not slaked.

During the several years spent by myself "on the stage" I had occasionally come in touch with circus people. To some extent they recruit the stage, and though actors affect a great superiority there is a degree of common understanding and on occasion of good fellowship between all show folks. I consider myself to hold rather originally favorable opinions of the sawdust performers as compared to other nomads, but I am not accustomed to see religion flourish among any such class, except semioccasionally in the case of Roman Catholics. One effect of Puritanism on Protestantism has been to unfit it for many Christlike ministrations which the old church still better or worse performs. It was the loneliness of the little clown's religious aspirations that touched me most. I reflected on how many good people would be disconcerted to hear of them, on how many would feel that in some mysterious way such aspirations most irritatingly and unjustly weakened their own position of condemnation toward clowns and circuses in particular and the world, the flesh and the devil at large.

I smiled at the thought. I was lying on deck in my steamer chair, and just then the captain of the amazons, in much nautical splendor of blue serge and white anchors, whirled down the deck and collided in front of me with the shabby missionary.

The girl turned pale. It was pleasing to see the awe with which the cloth inspired her. In the confusion of her apologies she dropped a pack of cards. The missionary picked them up, and with a kindly, faintly humorous smile handed them to her, and she got herself off expeditiously, though, so to speak, with much sail taken in.

It occurred to me that perhaps this preacher did not illustrate the points I had been making against the pious. We had arrived at a bowing acquaintance, the missionary and I, and now when he glanced my way I smiled my recognition of the moment's accident. He smiled, too, and said, "When I first went to China, I found that for the work I wanted to do I must dress like a Chinaman." The conclusion of his thought—that the clerical broadcloth might still interfere with his usefulness—he expressed only by a quizzical glance down the deck toward the young lady whose normal costume was tights.

Later in the long, fair, ocean girt day as the ship glided on between two still, blue wonder worlds—the water was like satin—Amy brought her water color box on deck and began to sketch.

Everybody was on deck. The clown, with a white bell shaped soft hat pulled down to his ears and his hands in his pockets, was doggedly taking a constitutional and chewing a toothpick.

I was planning to use my past connection with the stage to help me to his acquaintance when it appeared that we were to win that privilege through a quite different appeal. As I lay, drowsy with content, watching the dashes of color brighten Amy's pad, I became aware that Teddy Catty—that was his delightful name—was circling about his pale, white lashed little eyes blinking fixedly—if you will permit the paradox—upon Amy's work.

I looked up at him amicably as he came nearer. He touched his hat. There was a touch of the grotesque, something clownish, in his very organization, and the way he touched his hat was faintly funny, was dimly Audreylike. He came nearer shyly, cleared his throat and said, with a very good accent and in quite the usual English way:

"Beg pardon. I hope you'll excuse me for watching, but I take such an interest when I see any one painting."

"Do you paint?" I concluded my reply.

"Oh, no, no, no, indeed, but I have a sister who does. She paints wonderfully. Then, lowering his voice, he added hesitatingly, as if it were really modest to speak of so much glory, "She has a picture in the Royal academy this year."

Now, this was exactly what I wanted to hear about. Amy was painting away. She had recognized the clown's presence by a civil glance only, so I encouraged him to draw up a stool and wait till her sketch was done.

I soon learned much of the little all that my week's acquaintance with him disclosed. The sight of a girl painting had melted him into a mood of communicative as a child's, and he only wanted a sympathetic audience to enjoy with him the music of Emmy's name. Yes, the heroine of the Royal academy and the dear giver of the little Bible were one—she was Teddy Catty's only sister.

Let me give such an outline of their history as I can in orderly sequence.

The father had been in charge of the workroom of a china painting firm. "That's all knocked off now," said Teddy Catty, and he explained lamely and naively how people wanted "high art" nowadays, and how consequently his father's old firm had gone out of business. His father had been with it 40 years, and "he died pretty soon after he lost his place."

The mother had been a ballet girl before she married, and she had numbers of relatives in various branches of the "show business." The children, four of them, were all put on the stage in pantomimes and such things when they were little. Of the family there were now left only the one brother and sister.

No, Emmy was not on the stage, "not in no way." Though his accent was so good, the little clown's grammar was not upon a dull level of correctness. "Emmy never exactly liked the stage, her mother never exactly wanted her to go on it," and just when they did not know what she should do she solved the problem the old way and married—married a scene painter at the Lyceum theater.

"You may know by that that he's a good one. He was only in a small position when Emmy married him, but he's one of the head ones now. Then, you know, he knew some real artist painters, and Emmy—she didn't have any children, and she thought she'd like to learn to paint pictures, and she did. Her husband's awful proud of her."

It was the fifth day out when, after much narrative that, as is the way of talk, did not advance the story, we reached this point.

We were again on deck, and Amy and I were lying in our chairs gazing over a tossing dark sea at a red sunset, while Teddy Catty sat facing us.

"You wouldn't think Emmy was my sister," he said. "She's like another kind. She's a beauty, and she's just like a swell, a nice swell, in her ways, and then she's good. My, she's good!"

"Is she religious?" I ventured.

"Now, you know—yes—but then it's hard to say exactly what different people mean," and the boy gave himself up with grave pleasure to the serious business of accurately informing us as to Emmy's spiritual life. "She is as religious as she can be one way," he went on, "and then the other she only goes as far as she can without feeling as if she was throwing over the rest of us. Her husband he thinks religious people ain't his kind, and of course I'm nowhere with 'em, and Emmy can't make herself up to contract with them that despises us. You wouldn't believe what she thinks of me, you wouldn't indeed. So she just goes without religion except what she can get reading the Bible and"—half hesitating and softening his tone—"and praying. She says she believes we can be good that way. She wants me to try. She is good, good. I wish, though, she could be with real religious people, some kind. Our grandmother, one of 'em, was a great chapel goer. She was an independent. I think Emmy would be happier that way."

He turned his face toward the angry gloom of the sea and the fading western sky, and we were all silent. What a comforting glimpse of human nature!

Presently Amy said, with an odd little accession of formal courtesy in her tone: "I hope, Mr. Catty, you have a picture of your sister that you can show us. I should like to know how she looks."

Yes, he had her picture in his state-room. He wanted us to see it.

The limitless night was darkening around us in momentary pulsations. We left the wild, soul searching scene for the potty, pretty glare of the cabin. While we were drinking our tea Teddy Catty brought us the photograph.

It seems out of harmony now with the fleshly reaction from the infinite things of the spirit that had just come upon us. We had to give our poor flagging souls a tug to make them respond to the unconscious awe that looked, Madonna-like, upon us. You never saw a little child's face more deeply, simply serious.

The next day I took the picture to show to the missionary. He smiled benevolently as I told of the quaint brother and sister, but being a missionary and not an artist and seeing nothing to do for them his mind inclined to wander. Yet once or twice afterward as he walked the deck with one of his small children by the hand—he always had one with him when he did not have two—he tried to join in our conversation with Teddy Catty, but when he saw the little fellow draw back over-awed he readily enough, with a shade of relief perhaps, abandoned the gentle attack.

This trio was not often in session, so to say, for Teddy Catty was very modest and was scrupulously careful not to intrude upon us, but he was sure to be within beckoning distance whenever Amy was sketching. The sight exercised an absurd fascination upon him.

It was easy to see that he regarded me as of an altogether inferior race of beings as compared to Amy. With me he could talk on occasion, but to her he could scarcely more than speak when he was spoken to. This dumb shyness, together with his professional position, puzzled Amy.

"Do you suppose," said she, "that he is anything of a clown, that honest little owl?"

In truth, there seemed nothing clown-like about Teddy Catty except the clownishness of which I have spoken, the touch of oddity that made his identity seem a little humorous. But then I had seen successful comedians flourish on nothing more than a lesser degree of the same thing, and I knew, too, what is always puzzling to the world, that the possession of the technique of any art involves the possession to mold it into art.
